AGENDA

Feb 21: morning and afternoon sessions (7:30-5:00 pm)

- Welcome

- Morning Keynote:
  Sarah Medary, Assistant City Manager, City of Eugene, Leading Transformation and Change – A Landscape Architect's Journey.

- Session 1: Landscape scale challenges and management (Session Chair: Derek Godwin, OSU)

  - Presentations:
    Scott Altenhoff: Using the Collective Impact Framework and Adaptive Management Techniques to Promote More Effective and Widespread Green Infrastructure.
    Bruce Roll: Broadening the Scope to Increase Resilience: Expanding Stormwater Management Beyond Regulated Areas
    Carrie Sanneman: Side Effects May Include: Cost Savings, Collaboration, Resilience – 3 stories of Integrated Water Management

  - Interactive break-out session

- Luncheon Keynote panel: Chris Obropta, Rosana Da Silva: Rutgers University: Community-based Green Infrastructure Initiative in New Jersey

- Session 2: Green Stormwater Infrastructure (Session Chair: Ani Jayakaran, WSU)

  - Presentations
    Bob Simmons: WSU Extension's Green Stormwater Infrastructure Programming Experiences.
    Sarah Whitney: Action Through Understanding – Incentivizing Voluntary Green Stormwater Infrastructure.
    Doug Howie: Green Stormwater Infrastructure in Washington State: Status and Trends.
    Joe Cook: Economics of Green Stormwater Infrastructure.

- Interactive break-out session

Feb 22: morning and afternoon sessions (7:30-3:00 pm)

- Session 3: Non-traditional, Non-water Green Infrastructure Issues and Ideas (Session Chair: Kevan Moffett, WSU)
  - Presentations
    Jennifer Karps: Trees as a Tool for Equity.
    Vivek Shandas: Trees as Green Infrastructure: Implications of expanding urban canopy on urban heat, air quality, and residential energy use in the Portland metropolitan region.
    Yekang Ko PhD: Socioeconomic and policy implications from a long-term monitoring of Sacramento Shade trees.

    Session Sponsor

  - Interactive break-out session

- Session 4: Research & Education planning session
  (3:30-6:00 pm) (Session Chair: Julie Padowski, WSU)

  Session Sponsor